6:00pm to 8:30pm

Rancho Santa Margarita Bell Tower Community Center (22232 El Paseo)

Teens Speak is a town hall panel of teen survivors of drug, alcohol abuse, and cyberbullying. Experts in teen recovery and teen survivors will answer questions directly from the audience.

Teens Speak is a unique opportunity where teens and their parents can hear the personal experiences from people that have experienced addiction and cyberbullying, and fought to overcome it.

Teens Speak panel will discuss the warning signs of addiction and online abuse, prevention, and recovery.

Non Profit Organization resource booths will provide attendees with helpful information about prevention and treatment of substance abuse.
